

JMA Media Registration Regulations

Registration of media who wish to cover a Japan Super Rally Series (JSR) is to be handled as follows:

Purpose and objectives of this regulation:

- To define media application, approval and handling process per regulations of FIA and other general motorsport events.
- For the purpose of effective media activities as well as smooth operation of competition, media registration is handled by Japan Motorsport Association (JMA), based on a work order by the organizer.
- With this regulation, JMA will handle each media in fair manner, while working to achieve introduction of major media, effective exposure for an organizer and effective promotion.

Qualified requester of media registration application

- Media companies, such as broadcasting stations, news agencies and publishing companies, or their third-party contractors.
- Member photographer/journalists of JPRA and/or JMS. JAF press pass holders. Application of those individuals require guarantee of media exposure of the event, and thus must be accompanied with approval by the publisher or broadcasting station.

* No application from individuals are accepted except for the above.

Media registration application

- Requester must submit a completed Media Registration Application Form including name of publishing media (TV program), name of media personnel visiting the rally event.
- Once received the above form, JMA sends notification to approved media, and those media must submit a signed and completed written oath provided by the JMA, at the Media Accreditation of the event.

Classification of Media

- In order to satisfy the requirements of smooth operation and safety of competition, media accreditation is classified to two categories: Tabard Media and Credential Media.
- Those who wish to perform media coverage activities in special stages and other competition courses defined by the organizer must apply for and accredited as a Tabard Media. Tabard Media accreditation is given only those who satisfies special qualifications.
- Those who wish to film video must observe regulations for video filming and use, which is defined separately.

Required qualification of Tabard Media

- Possesses good experiences of media coverage activities in rally events, and always follows instructions by marshals. Do not interfere operations of rally competition.
- Applicants must list recent experiences of media coverage on major rally events in the application form.
- Possesses valid medical insurance policy for such media coverage activities – photocopy of insurance document must be submitted with application.

JMA examines requests and notifies the result.
